Detailed Schedule

12:00-1:00 “Meet, Greet, and Pet” with Eleanor Pigby and the goats Scout and Sawyer.

Meet the Summit School Pets for purpose -- Eleanor Pigby and her goat pals Scout and Sawyer -- in a meet, greet, and petting opportunity at the Easter Veteran’s Square kiosk in a fundraiser for the Center for Safety & Change. Bring non-perishable foods or make a donation to pet, feed, and take pictures with the Nyack celebrities. 15 Cedar at Main

12:00-3:00 Kids Crafts in SoBro

Kids of all ages can come to SoBro (South Broadway down below Hudson Street) to create beautiful wooden trinkets and ornaments with paint, glue, glitter, and whatever else we have handy. (while supplies last). 79 South Broadway.

12:30-4:30 Kids Holiday Train Ride down South Broadway (Burd to Hudson)

Kids can take the Holiday Train down Broadway from the North Pole (Burd Street) to the South Pole (Hudson Street), and then back again, taking in all the sights and sounds of the Promenade. Stops at 7 South Broadway and 48 South Broadway.

1:00-1:30 Polar Express Reading at the Breakfast & Burger Club

A live, open-air reading of the classic The Polar Express by Suzie Diano outside Breakfast and Burger Club. 84 Main Street.

1:00-3:00 Community Caroling starting at the Hezekiah Easter Veterans Park

Join a dedicated group of caroling enthusiasts starting up at the gazebo to sing holiday songs -- kids and instruments welcome!

1:00-6:00 Maureen’s Community Holiday Singalong with David Budway

Come join David Budway and the band at Maureen’s Jazz Cellar for an afternoon’s festive singalong of holiday songs (and try both the hot chocolate and the “adult” version). 2 North Broadway

2:00-3:00 “Stars in the Afternoon” Holiday Concert at the First Reformed Church

The Morning Music Club presents a star-studded holiday concert featuring a singalong and finale of “Hallelujah Chorus” at the First Reformed Church ($10 suggested donation). 18 S. Broadway.

2:00-4:00 Nyack Library Grab and Go Crafts Packs
